

WP 8 iPAAC webinar

Facing the harsh reality of pancreatic cancer: policy measures and health system strategies

Wednesday, 9th of September 2020

AGENDA

10:00	Beginning of meeting <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Scale of the problem or why pancreatic cancer is considered a “neglected cancer” (Josep M. Borras) 2. Evidence of policy measures (Josep M. Borras) 3. Recommendations: 22 criteria agreed at European level (The Bratislava Statement on Pancreatic Cancer Care) (Joan Prades, Stefano Partelli, Francesco Sclafani and Antonella Cardone) 4. Discussion
12:00	End of meeting

Speakers’ affiliation:

Josep M Borras: Catalonian Cancer Strategy, Department of Health, Barcelona, Spain & University of Barcelona

Antonella Cardone: European Cancer Patient Coalition (ECPC) and Pancreatic Cancer Europe (PCE)

Stefano Partelli: Stefano Partelli, Pancreatic Surgery Vita-Salute San Raffaele University, Milan, European Society of Surgical Oncology (ESSO) and co-chair of the European CanCer Organisation (ECCO) for pancreatic cancer quality standards

Joan Prades: Catalonian Cancer Strategy, Department of Health, Barcelona, Spain

Francesco Sclafani: Institut Jules Bordet, Brussels, European Organisation for Research and Treatment of Cancer (EORTC) and co-chair of the European CanCer Organisation (ECCO) for pancreatic cancer quality standards

Co-funded by the Health Programme of the European Union